CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

This online conference will address limits of state regulatory powers under international law. The speakers will include a mix of law firm partners, independent arbitrators, academics and valuation experts. The topics covered will include the most recent developments in investor-state dispute resolution, new trends in investment treaty making, force majeure, hardship and the right to regulate as well as the impact of Brexit and COVID-19 on investors. We will also discuss differences between various regions and the practical ways how new international investment agreements can better balance protection of investors and interests of States.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

How will the online format work?

- full programme online including comfort breaks - you will also get a recording of all presentations and slides to refer back to
- plenty of time for information-rich discussion involving key policymakers, practitioners and academics
- conference materials provided in advance, including speaker biographies and the list of participants with affiliations
- speakers presenting via webcam, accompanied by slides if they wish, using the Zoom online conference platform
- opportunities for live delegate questions and comments (both written and oral)
- networking opportunities - there will be opportunities for delegates to e-meet and interact on the Investment Treaty Forum + LinkedIn group.

She holds a Master of Arts in International Political Economy from the University of Warwick and a Postgraduate Certificate in International Business Law from the University of London.

Sylvie Tabet

Trade Law Bureau, Government of Canada, Ottawa

Sylvie Tabet is General Counsel at Canada's Trade Law Bureau where she is responsible for providing trade law advice and litigating international trade and investment cases on behalf of the Government of Canada. She has extensive experience in negotiating international trade and investment agreements, including the Bilateral Investment Treaty with China and the Canada-EU Trade Agreement where Sylvie was lead counsel for the Government of Canada. She has also litigated WTO cases on behalf of Canada and successfully led Canada's defense in numerous NAFTA Chapter 11 cases and in the recent Global Telecom Holdings SAE v. Canada case under the Canada-Egypt BIT. Sylvie is Canada's representative for UNCITRAL Working Group III on investor state dispute settlement reform.

Sylvie was called to the Quebec Bar in 1994. She is fluent in French and English and has a good knowledge of Spanish. She currently lives in Tokyo.

Louise Woods
Vinson & Elkins, London

Louise is a partner in Vinson & Elkins' London office with significant experience in arbitration and litigation of high value, complex international commercial disputes and investor-state arbitration. She is admitted in England and Wales as a Solicitor-Advocate and regularly appears as an advocate before international arbitration tribunals.

Louise represents clients across a wide range of industry sectors, including energy, banking and financial services, construction, infrastructure, technology and real estate development. In recent years, Louise's practice has increasingly focused on international energy disputes, in particular upstream oil and gas disputes across both Africa and Latin America. Of particular note in the investor-state arena is Louise's representation of a Saudi investor in Hesham Al-Warraq v. the Republic of Indonesia, an investor-state arbitration which set a precedent under the Investment Agreement of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation, allowing foreign investors to take host states to arbitration.

Can Yeginsu

INVESTMENT TREATY FORUM

Overview

The Investment Treaty Forum (ITF) was founded in 2004. Its aim is to provide a global centre for serious high level debate in the field of international investment law.

The Forum is a membership-based group, bringing together some of the most expert and experienced lawyers, business managers, policy advisers, academics and government officials working in the field. Like BIICL itself, the Forum has a reputation for independence, even-handedness and academic rigour. The Forum membership is by invitation only.

People

Patrons

The Patrons of the Forum are: HE Judge Rosalyn Higgins GBE QC and Yves Fortier CC QC.

Forum Director

The Forum Director is Professor Yarik Kryvoi.

The Advisory Board

Since its inception the Investment Treaty Forum's programme has been guided on an informal basis by a small Advisory Board which currently comprises:

- Sir Frank Berman, KCMG QC, Essex Court Chambers;
- Professor Andrea Bjorklund, McGill University;
- Professor A Vaughan Lowe, All Souls College Oxford and Essex Court Chambers;
- Loretta Malintoppi, 39 Essex Chambers, London;
- Audley Sheppard, Clifford Chance LLP, London;
- Robert Volterra, Volterra Fietta, and Faculty of Law, UCL.

Membership

The ITF's strength lies in its membership, which is drawn from as wide a range of backgrounds as possible. Members meet regularly (typically 6-7 times each year) to discuss topical issues and, where appropriate, to develop views on issues of concern to governments and decision-makers. The Forum also has strong links with related institutions (including the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office, UNCTAD and many others).

Benefits of membership

Key benefits for ITF members include:

- The right to participate in an independently-run Forum, including free entry to all ITF meetings and conferences.
- A direct influence on the agenda of Forum meetings and the opportunity to recommend events, speakers and topics for debate.
- The opportunity to suggest research or other work to be carried out by the Forum staff.
- Access to a members-only section of the website with materials related to investment treaty law.
- BIICL's Individual membership benefits (electronic access to ICLQ, 40% discount on BIICL publications, 20% discount on CUP publications and member rate at BIICL events).

Conditions of membership

Forum membership is limited by invitation only, to ensure the highest quality in its plenary discussions. To guarantee continuity, and manageability of debate, membership is for named individuals only. However, at the time of joining, members may nominate a senior colleague to represent them on those occasions when they are unable to attend meetings.

Membership rates

Membership of the ITF is available at the following annual rates (exclusive of VAT):

- Corporate membership: £2,950
- Individuals: £750

Membership of the Forum is by invitation only. For more information on ITF membership please contact Prof Yarik Kryvoi (Y.Kryvoi@biicl.org).
