

OIL, GAS AND ENERGY LAW JOURNAL

Oil, Gas & Energy Law (OGEL) is a peer-reviewed academic journal covering all aspects of law pertaining to oil, gas, and energy in general. Since the first issue was published in 2003 it has gained popularity with a large number of (international) energy companies, governmental organizations, law firms, international agencies, academic and think-tank institutions in the field of energy policy and various NGOs.

OGEL hosts the archives of OGELFORUM, the associated discussion list. It is one of the oldest virtual energy discussion fora for discussion, sharing of insights and intelligence of relevant issues related in a significant way to oil, gas and energy issues: Policy, legislation, contracting, security strategy, climate change related to energy.

Oil, Gas & Energy Law main benefits:

- Established reputation for quality: leading (inter)national law firms and universities amongst our readership.
- Always stay up-to-date about new trends and insights in international and regional energy policies.
- Join OGELFORUM: Discussions on policy, legislation, contracting, security strategy and climate change related to energy.
- Extensive archive providing background and research information.
- Save time with our Legal & Regulatory database, containing more than 10.000 documents from over 200 countries.
