ESSEX COURT CHAMBERS
BARRISTERS

This two-day conference will bring together for the first time leading academic and practising lawyers to pool knowledge and share perspectives on the changing relationship between public international law and domestic public law in different jurisdictions. Organised by the British Institute of International and Comparative Law (BIICL) and the Melbourne Law School (MLS), this event will allow a constructive dialogue on how national public law and public international law and practice should and must co-exist, combining theory with case studies and the experience of practitioners.

Speakers Include:

- Professor Dapo Akande, Oxford University
- Sir Frank Berman KCMG QC, BIICL
- The Rt Hon Sir Stanley Burnton QC, One Essex Court
- Professor Dr Armin von Bogdandy, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, Heidelberg; and University of Frankfurt
- Professor Michael Crommelin, Melbourne Law School
- Tim Eicke QC, Essex Court Chambers
- Professor David Feldman QC, Cambridge University
- Lord Peter Goldsmith QC PC, Debevoise & Plimpton and former UK Attorney General
- Dr Jarrod Hepburn, Melbourne Law School
- Sir Jeffrey Jowell KCMG QC, Blackstone Chambers
- Ben Juratowitch, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer
- Professor Dawn Oliver, University College London
- Professor Thomas Poole, London School of Economics
- Sir Bernard Rix, 20 Essex Street
- Professor Dan Sarooshi, Oxford University & Essex Court Chambers
- Professor Cheryl Saunders, Melbourne Law School
- Professor Gerry Simpson, London School of Economics and Melbourne Law School
- Dr Antonios Tzanakopoulos, Oxford University
- Douglas Wilson, Foreign and Commonwealth Office
