

British Institute of International and Comparative Law

CPD HOURS
May be claimed by both solicitors and barristers through attendance at this event.

Events

Cross-border Dispute Resolution Short Course / 12 CPD hours

- Date: Thursday 13 and Friday 14 October 2016
- Location: British Institute of International and Comparative Law
Charles Clore House, 17 Russell Square, London WC1B 5JP
- Course Lead: Dr Eva Lein, Herbert Smith Freehills Senior Research Fellow in Private International Law, BIICL

This two-day programme is focused on current developments and strategies in cross-border dispute resolution. Cross-border dispute resolution is a part of the practice of almost every commercial lawyer and knowledge in this area is essential. Led by BIICL researchers, academics and practitioners, the course is designed to give a concise introduction to key issues across a broad range of areas of dispute resolution including updates on new case law.

Speakers

- Stephen Fietta, Fietta
- Dr Liza Lovdahl Gormsen, BIICL
- Marie Louise Kinsler, 2 Temple Gardens
- Hayk Kupelyants, University of Cambridge
- Alexander Layton QC, 20 Essex Street
- Professor Matthias Lehmann, University of Bonn
- Dr Eva Lein, BIICL
- Dr Helene Van Lith, ICC, Paris

Course topics

- Cross-border tort claims
- Disputes concerning transactions in the banking and finance sector
- Cross-border competition law claims
- Tactical considerations as to the enforcement of foreign judgments
- Cross-border asset freezing
- Investment treaty arbitration
- Commercial arbitration
- Collective litigation

Who is the course for?

The course is ideal for those in the early and middle years of legal practice, those moving legal practice areas, anyone planning to enter a career in commercial litigation including students who are studying for a postgraduate degree which includes aspects of private international law/ dispute resolution or arbitration.

Course benefits

This course is unique in that it introduces participants to a variety of issues arising in cross-border cases in a concise and engaging way. It includes the core elements of dispute resolution but also special areas such as collective litigation.

Teaching arrangements

Teaching will be seminar style with opportunities for class discussion and interaction. Practical examples and cases will be given. Reading lists, including reference to electronic materials, will be provided for each session.

All sessions will be taught in English. If you are not a native English speaker, you will need to have experience of studying in English at university level or to have achieved an appropriate score in the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) or an equivalent programme.

CPD accreditation

The course is accredited with 12 CPD hours.

Fees and applying

The course fee is £425 (incl. VAT) and covers:

- Tuition and course materials
- Refreshments (tea/coffee/water) during sessions plus sandwiches during the lunch breaks
- Certificate of completion (hardcopy and electronic version).

Booking deadline: 22 September 2016 (Places are limited. Early booking is advised).

Group Booking Discount

- A 10% discount applies if four or more people from the same company register.
- A 10% discount applies to those learners booking all three of our October short courses.
- A 30% discount will apply to third sector organisations booking two or more places.

Book online at www.biicl.org/cross-bordercourse

Find out more

www.biicl.org/events

E: eventsregistration@biicl.org

T: +44 (0)20 7862 5168

@BIICL #CrossBorder2016