British Institute of International and Comparative Law

Short Course
Artificial Intelligence Regulation

1, 8, 15, 22, 29 Oct, 5, 12, 19 Nov 2026, 13:00-15:00 (UK time)
Lead Tutor: Dr Irene Pietropaoli

	Date/time (UK)	Topic	Tutor
Session 1	Thurs 1 Oct	Foundations: Conceptual and Critical Perspectives of AI Group introductions	Professor Mark Findlay, University of Edinburgh and Distinguished Fellow, BIICL
Session 2	Thurs 8 Oct	Global AI Governance: Regulatory Frameworks and Comparative Approaches EU AI Act	Dr Irene Pietropaoli, Senior Fellow in Business and Human Rights, BIICL
Session 3	Thurs 15 Oct	AI Liability	Susie Alegre, Garden Court Chambers
Session 4	Thurs 22 Oct	AI in Public Decision-Making and the Rule of Law	Professor Mark Findlay, University of Edinburgh and Distinguished Fellow, BIICL
Session 5	Thurs 29 Oct	AI, Business, and Human Rights: Due Diligence and Corporate Responsibility	Louise Humpington, Independent Advisor
Session 6	Thurs 5 Nov	AI, Innovation, and Economic Regulation Part 1: AI, IPs and data governance Part 2: AI, Work and algorithmic management	Bartolomeo Meletti, Head of Knowledge Exchange, CREATe, University of Glasgow Dr Jean-Pierre Gauci, Arthur Watts Senior Research Fellow in Public International Law, BIICL
Session 7	Thurs 12 Nov	AI in High-Risk and Global Contexts: Security, Conflict, and Environment	Dr Jack Kenny, Dorset Research Leader in International Law, BIICL

		Part 1: AI in armed conflict and security context Part 2: AI, climate change and environmental governance	Dr Ivano Alogna, Senior Research Fellow in Climate Change Law, BIICL
Session 8	Thurs 19 Nov	The Future of AI Regulation	Professor Mark Findlay, University of Edinburgh and Distinguished Fellow, BIICL