In collaboration with the Competition Markets Authority (CMA), the Competition Law Forum (CLF) will bring together CMA officials, UK NGAs and businesses to discuss some of the issues from this year's annual ICN meeting in Delhi: How can competition agencies reach out and engage stakeholders to better communicate their enforcement activity? What communications tools and strategies do competition authorities have at their disposal to promote deterrence within their jurisdictions? What are their limitations, legal or otherwise? What is the role of public and private stakeholders?

This event is also the chance for attendees to engage – in a dedicated session – in a substantive exchange of views on the future direction of the ICN, how to make the network even more effective, and to help enable NGAs to contribute effectively. We encourage you to think in advance about these views to facilitate discussion.
