TRANSNATIONAL CORPORATE HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES: DELIVERING ACCESS TO JUSTICE

17 July 2014, 2-6pm, The Law Society, London

113 Chancery Lane, London WC2A 1PL – Map here

Please RSVP to Sam Whannel at: whannel@business-humanrights.org

Victims of human rights abuse by business, wherever it occurs, require full and effective access to judicial remedies. Three years on from the adoption of the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, there is more work to be done.

CORE Coalition and Business & Human Rights Resource Centre, in association with the British Institute of International and Comparative Law (BIICL), cordially invite you to an afternoon conference to discuss recommendations for actions that should be taken to address the issue, drawing on "The Third Pillar: Access to Judicial Remedies for Human Rights Violations by Transnational Business", produced by CORE, ICAR and ECCJ, and "Injustice Incorporated" by Amnesty International.

Speakers include:

Prof. ROBERT McCORQUODALE, Director, BIICL

Dr. HELEN KIJO-BISIMBA, Executive Director, Legal & Human Rights Centre, Tanzania

PAUL HOFFMAN, Lead Counsel for the Plaintiffs, Kiobel v Shell

MARTYN DAY, Senior Partner, Leigh Day

Ministry of Justice representative, UK Government (invited)

SEEMA JOSHI, Director, Business and Human Rights, Amnesty International

Speakers from business and the UN Working Group on Business & Human Rights

CPD points will be available for this event

The conference will be followed by a reception from 6-8pm.
