

British Institute of International and
Comparative Law

Arthur Watts
Public International
Law Programme

The Dickson Poon
School of Law at

Multilateralism at Risk: traditional intellectual property treaties and the threat of trade and investment agreements

26 May 2015

17.00 – 19.00

SW1.18 (Moot Court Room), Somerset House East Wing

This seminar will consider the past, present and future of international intellectual property law treaty-making, taking into account the role of traditional players, such as the World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) and World Trade Organisation (WTO) in the multilateral sphere, as well the impact of regional and bilateral free trade agreements and investment treaties.

The seminar will be followed by a reception.

Chair:

Professor Tanya Aplin, Dickson Poon School of Law

Speakers:

Prof. Sam Ricketson, Professor of Law, University of Melbourne

Ms Shira Perlmutter, Chief Policy Officer and Director for International Affairs,
United States Patent and TradeMark Office

Dr Federico Ortino, Reader in International Economic Law, Dickson Poon School of Law

Convened by: Professor Tanya Aplin, Dickson Poon School of Law and Jill Barrett, Arthur Watts Senior Research Fellow in Public International Law, British Institute of International and Comparative Law.

How to Register

This event is free entry. Places strictly limited.

Please register for a place at the seminar via this link

CPD points available.