Criminal Legal Aid and Redress for Victims of Violence: International Perspectives on Access to Justice

Mon 13 July 2015
17:30-19:30
Followed by a drinks reception

British Institute of International and Comparative Law, Charles Clore House, 17 Russell Square, London WC1B 5JP

2 CPD hours

To what extent is criminal legal aid available and effective in different jurisdictions across Europe and beyond? What forms of redress for victims of violence do exist in different jurisdictions and are there effective and sustainable solutions that can be imported in other jurisdictions?

The Bingham Centre for the Rule of Law will host an evening expert event in which professionals and specialists in criminal justice issues and the law and practice relating to redress for victims of violence across jurisdictions will share their experience on the main challenges on such issues and will discuss and comment examples of good practice.

Speakers

• Olivia Rope, Penal Reform International
• Richard Meeran, Leigh Day
• Jonathan Stuart Mitchell, 25 Bedford Row
• Carla Ferstman, REDRESS

Chair

• Stephen Grosz QC (Hon), The Law Society, Human Rights Committee

The event is convened by the Bingham Centre as part of a project funded by the International Bar Association (IBA) through its Access to Justice and Legal Aid Committee.
