International Law in Practice
Short Course / 28.5 CPD hours
14-17 September 2015
British Institute of International and Comparative Law
Charles Clore House, 17 Russell Square, London WC1B 5JP

Course outline

International Law in Practice is a 4-day course running Monday to Thursday from 09:30–17:30. The coverage of the course encompasses a wide range of international law topics. It includes aspects of public international law, private international law, comparative law, European law and rule of law, which may arise in practice.

The following is an indicative example of the type of topics that may be covered and when they might be covered, though the topics and order is subject to change at this stage. Each seminar is generally 1.5 hours.

There will also be a session on the Tuesday evening in which practitioners will discuss their careers and ideas.

Day 1

- Introduction
- Legal Foundations of Public International Law
- International Dispute Settlement
- International Law and National Law
- International Law concerning Armed Conflict

Day 2

- International Human Rights Law
- International Law concerning Refugees and Migration
- International Investment Law
- Legal Practice in International Law
- Reception

Day 3

- Private International Law
- EU External Relations
- International Trade Law

Day 4

- The Rule of Law
- Corruption and the Rule of Law
- Comparative Law
- Business and Human Rights
- Conclusions
The final course schedule will be distributed among confirmed course participants closer to and ahead of the course start date.

For further information about this course, please contact the BIICL Events team:
E: eventsregistration@biicl.org
T: +44 (0)20 7862 5168