Becoming a member of the Competition Law Forum (CLF)

The CLF is a centre of excellence for European competition and antitrust policy and law at BIICL. It provides a forum in which the practical application of competition policy is considered by lawyers, economists, senior business managers, public servants, public affairs professionals, consumer bodies and other specialist practitioners. The Forum identifies areas requiring debate and analysis, and provides the required forum and experts, thereby contributing to policy initiatives.

Member enquiries: Dr Liza Lovdahl-Gormsen, CLF Director at l.lovdahlgormsen@biicl.org

Standardisation, Innovation and Consumers – What is Next in FRAND Licensing?

Weds 2 Mar 2016
14:00-18:00
(Registration from 13:30)

British Institute of International and
Comparative Law,
Charles Clore
House, 17 Russell
Square, London
WC1B 5JP

4 CPD hours

This event will foster a balanced debate on antitrust issues in FRAND licensing in light of recent developments such as the CJEU's Huawei v. ZTE ruling and the IEEE's patent policy change and their implications on consumer protection and innovation. The event will be followed by a drinks reception and networking.

This is a public event, open to both CLF members and non-members.
