"TAKING ACCOUNT OF ENFORCEMENT OBLIGATIONS – FROM CAMPAIGN PLANNING TO PROSECUTIONS"

1 June 2006

Capt Neil Brown - Royal Navy
Lt Col David Frend - Army Legal Services

Introduction and Overview

- Individual Responsibilities
  - Command and Control
  - Training
- Concept of Operations
  - Investigations
  - Prosecutions
- Developing Capability
  - Structural and Legislative Change
  - Application of Service Law to civilians

Individual Responsibilities

- Command and Control
  - –Campaign planning
    - Service Police and Prisoner Handling Resources
  - – Mission Command
    - At all levels and in all environments
    - ROE – Detention; Targeting
  - –The Moral Factor and Information Operations

Individual Responsibilities

- Training
  - –GC Obligations: Career Training
  - – GC Obligations: Mission Specific Training
    - Operational Training and Advisory Group (OPTAG) pre-deployment training
    - In-theatre Training
    - Table-topping
    - Aide Memoire and ROE Training

Concept of Operations

- Investigations
  - – Consistent Application
    - At all levels
    - In all environments
  - – Post Incident Procedures
    - What and when to investigate
  - – Conducting Investigations in Operations

Concept of Operations

- Prosecutions
  - – Access to Independent Corroborative Evidence
  - – Camp Breadbasket (photos)
  - – 3 PARA (constraints on investigation)
  - – Reality versus Perception (what can be proved)

Developing Capability

- Structural Implications
  - –Resources, Re-organisation, Standards and Inspections
- Armed Forces Bill
  - – CO's Powers
  - – Inherently Serious Cases
    - •Prosecution Authority engagement: Speed and Quality

Developing Capability

- Applying Service Law to Civilians
  - – Ministry of Defence Policy
  - – Review
  - – The Armed Forces Bill Approach

Conclusions