7th Annual International Rule of Law lecture

Is the open court principle sustainable in the 21st century?
An examination of the open court principle as a component of the Rule of Law

Keynote address by
Beverley McLachlin, Chief Justice of Canada

Hosted by: the International Committee of the Bar Council

Wednesday 8 January 2014
17:30, followed by drinks reception

Venue: Middle Temple Hall, Middle Temple Lane, London EC4Y 9AT

Tickets: There is no charge for admission. One CPD point accredited.
Please register with Juliette Hargreave at IntlEvents@BarCouncil.org.uk or call 0207 611 1455