Annual Grotius Lecture

The Contribution of National Courts to the Development of International Law

18:00-19:00, Common Room

This year's Annual Grotius Lecture will be presented by Sir Christopher Greenwood CMG QC. Sir Christopher has been a Judge on the International Court of Justice since 2009 and is a Vice-President of BIICL. Previously he was Professor of International Law at LSE and a barrister at Essex Court Chambers, and he is also an arbitrator. He has written widely on matters of public international law. He brings his extensive experience as an academic, practitioner and judge to this prestigious Annual Lecture of BIICL.

This Lecture will be of great interest to barristers, solicitors, judges, arbitrators, government officials, intergovernmental officials, academics, students and all with an interest in international law and international affairs.

There will be a reception after the Lecture, followed by the Annual Grotius Dinner.

Annual Grotius Dinner

20:00-22:30, Reading Room

We are delighted to welcome Guy Martin as the speaker for the Annual Grotius Dinner.

Guy is a Partner and Head of International Law at Carter-Ruck solicitors. He has considerable experience in international legal issues, particularly in the field of targeted sanctions. He has represented listed individuals in delisting petitions to the UN Ombudsperson, and before the ECJ and national courts. He has been acting for Sheikh Yassin Abdullah Kadi throughout the long legal processes through various courts.

The Dinner will take place after the Annual Grotius Lecture.
